

Half-term Art Classes

@Allum Manor House

Tuesday 27th to Thursday 29th October

Looking for a fun and creative activity this half term?

Join Mobile Art Club for an exciting Mexico-inspired art adventure for children aged 6–12! In this special 3-hour session, young artists will explore Mexican art, learn some Spanish, and discover the rich culture and traditions of Mexico, including creating art inspired by Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead).

With step-by-step guidance and plenty of time to be creative, children can work at their own pace, build confidence, learn new art skills, and most importantly — have fun! Every child will take home amazing artworks they'll be proud to show family and friends.
